General Manager Report March 25, 2025

1. The AED Defibrillator and No Camping Signs have been put up.
2. CHP received the letter regarding dangerous driving on National Trails. They have confirmed that they will increase patrols in that area.
3. The commercial freezer was purchased for $2,952.35 and will be delivered by March 28th.
4. I am working on getting additional estimates for the repair of the Dugout.
5. Eide Bailey has completed all work per the engagement letter. I am just waiting for the final report. We came in under budget, Lauren will be training me on how to reconcile accounts and understand QuickBooks better with the remaining funds.
