5. Agenda Items-

- A. Director Unger recommends that the Board formally censure the President for consistently failing to maintain order during Board meetings, contrary to the duties outlined in the Board's bylaws and in Robert's Rules of Order, and that this censure be entered into the official Minutes as a formal record of the Board's disapproval; Discussion/Possible Action; Submitted by Director Unger.

The Board is designed to have one Presiding Officer, not to serve as a boss or a Dictator but to maintain order and to conduct an orderly meeting

1. The Board President consistently, at every meeting, fails to keep order by failing to silence Directors who interrupt each other and speak without having the floor.

2. The Board President consistently, at every meeting, fails to keep order by failing to remind audience members to await their turn to be recognized and be given the floor before speaking.

The Board meeting is not supposed to be a "shoutfest" where the loudest voice or the biggest bully gets to talk whenever they want and for as long as they want. All of the CSD Directors have been present at meetings of the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors. The CSD Directors have witnessed orderly and proper Board meetings. There's no shouting or arguing between Directors. Directors aren't interrupting each other. This CSD Board President fails to abide by Robert's Rules of Order, This CSD Board President fails to abide by orderly and polite procedures, This CSD Board President fails to remind and require the Board members to behave themselves properly.

- B. Review and Revise Policy 2130 Payroll; Discussion/Possible Action; Submitted by Director Deel

This update provides better oversight of payroll. With our small staff it is difficult to have Internal Controls in the payroll process.
